

Model completeness

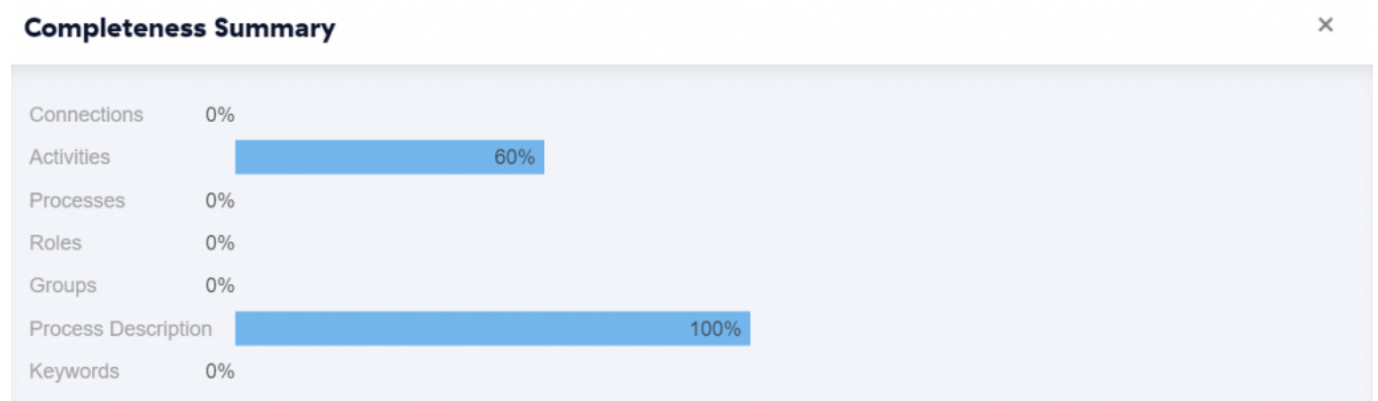

<https://documentation.dcr.design/documentation/model-completeness/>

The model completeness bar gives shows how many features are in use in a current process model. This include details of every activity and rule in the process model.

The completeness summary is shown in the lower left corner in DCR Whiteboard:

Clicking will show the Completeness Summary window:

Type: User guide

Audience: Modelers

